Head Coach Jerry Kill

■ COACHING STAFF

JERRY KILL

HEAD COACH • FOURTH SEASON

Jerry Kill was named head coach of the University of Minnesota football program on December 7, 2010. He will begin his fourth year at Minnesota and 21st overall of being a head college football coach in 2014. His career record is 144-94.

The Gophers were 3-9 in Kill's first season in 2011, but reached a bowl game and finished 6-7 in 2012. As custom with Kill and his staff, the third year at a school usually turns into a memorable season and 2013 was no different at Minnesota. The Gophers finished the season with an 8-5 record, giving Kill a 17-21 record as head coach at Minnesota. Kill was a combined 9-26 in his first year at Minnesota and at his previous two schools Northern Illinois (NIU) and Southern Illinois (SIU). In his third year, the schools produced a combined record of 28-9.

In 2013, the Gophers reached eight wins for the first time under Kill and for only the seventh time since 1960 and 18th time overall. In Kill's last two years, Minnesota has played 26 games and is 14-12 in those games. In their previous 26 games, the Gophers were 6-20.

Last year, Kill and his staff led Minnesota to four straight Big Ten wins for the first time since 1973 and ended a 16-game losing streak to Nebraska. Kill, who was named Region 3 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association, has taken Minnesota to two consecutive bowl games.

Kill saw nine of his players earn postseason recognition by Big Ten coaches and media, and Minnesota had two first-team All-Big Ten selections in Ra'Shede Hageman and Brock Vereen. Hageman and Vereen were the first Gophers to receive that honor since 2009. Hageman was then drafted in the second round by Atlanta, while Vereen was a fourth-round selection by Chicago, as they became the first Minnesota players drafted since 2010.

Kill's rebuilding of the Minnesota program is also taking place in the classroom. The Gophers recorded a 994 Academic Progress Rate (APR) for both the 2012-13 season and the 2011-12 season. The 994 score is the highest single-season score that the Minnesota football team has ever recorded and the Gophers' multi-year rate of 962 is also a school record.

Kill came to Minnesota after spending three seasons on the sidelines at NIU. Kill led the Huskies to three consecutive bowl games during his tenure and also coached NIU to a berth the Mid-American Conference Championship game in 2010. Kill was 23-16 in his three seasons with the Huskies.

At NIU, Kill coached two winners of the Mid-American Conference Vern Smith Leadership Award, given annually to the conference's top football player. Defensive end Larry English won the award in 2008, Kill's first season. Running back Chad Spann was honored in 2010. English went on to be the No. 16 overall choice in the 2009 NFL Draft and currently plays for the San Diego Chargers.

During 2010, Kill mentored six first-team All-MAC selections. In his three seasons, the Huskies earned 10 first-team all-MAC honors. His 2010 squad ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense, No. 12 in scoring offense, No. 19 in total offense, No. 14 in scoring defense, No. 26 in total defense, No. 24 in rushing defense and No. 44 in passing defense. Following the 2010 season, Kill was named the National Coach of the Year by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

In 2009, Kill was presented with the National Football Foundation Courage Award by the Chicago Metro Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

In four previous stops as a head coach, he has never left a school with a sub-.500 record. In three of his previous four head coaching positions, he took over a team with a losing record and turned in a winning season in three years or less.

Prior to serving as the head coach at NIU, Kill was in charge of the football program at Southern Illinois, an FCS program in Carbondale, Ill. He spent seven years on the Saluki sideline and compiled a 55-32 record. Kill's record over his final five seasons with Southern Illinois was 50-14 and included five consecutive NCAA FCS Playoff appearances.

Kill was the head coach at Emporia (Kan.) State for two seasons in 1999-2000. He went 11-11 with the Hornets, who play at the NCAA Division II level. Prior to Emporia State, Kill was the head coach at NCAA Division II member Saginaw Valley State from 1994-1998. He compiled a 38-14 record with the Cardinals.

Kill served as defensive coordinator and offensive coordinator in two different stops at Pittsburg (Kan.) State University. He helped lead the Gorillas to three NAIA playoff appearances as the defensive coordinator from 1985-87. Kill returned to Pitt State as the offensive coordinator from 1990-93. In that four-year span, the Gorillas advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs four times, reaching the championship game twice and winning the 1991 national title.

Sandwiched between his stints at Pittsburg State, Kill was the head coach at Webb City (Mo.) High School. He was 25-1 in two seasons at Webb City and won a state championship in 1989.

Kill and his wife Rebecca have two daughters, Krystal and Tasha.

TRACY CLAEYS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR • FOURTH SEASON

THE CLAEYS FILE

Tracy Claeys has been the defensive coordinator for the University of Minnesota football program since head coach Jerry Kill's arrival in December of 2010.

Claeys has helped transform Minnesota's defense since he has been in charge. Minnesota allowed 380 points in 2011 and 321 points in 2012. In 2013, under the leadership of Claeys, the Gopher defense allowed only 289 points, which was the first time that Minnesota went an entire season not allowing 300 points since 2004 when it allowed 273 points in 12 games (allowed 285 points in 13 games in 2003). Minnesota ranked fourth in the Big Ten and 25th in the nation allowing only 22.2 points a game.

In 2013, Minnesota's defense was at its best when its back was against the wall. The Gophers finished first in the Big Ten and 15th in the nation in red zone defense, as they allowed opponents to score only 74.0 percent (37 of 50) of the time.

Last year, Claeys coached two first-team All-Big Ten selections and NFL draft picks in Ra'Shede Hageman and Brock Vereen. Hageman and Vereen were the first Gopher defensive players to be recognized by the conference since 2008 and they were the first Gophers to be drafted since 2010.

Claeys started his coaching career at Santa Fe Trail High School in 1994. He joined up with Kill in 1995 at Saginaw Valley State, where he coached the defensive line. Claeys became Kill's defensive coordinator at Emporia State in 1999. He remained in that capacity when Kill took over at Southern Illinois in 2001 and Northern Illinois in 2008.

Claeys led a Northern Illinois defensive unit that was ranked No. 14 in the nation and No. 1 in the Mid-American Conference in scoring defense, allowing an average of just 19.08 points per game in the 2010 season. The Huskies were also No. 32 in the nation in pass efficiency defense, No. 27 in total defense and No. 27 in rushing defense in Claeys' final season at NIU.

Claeys' defense topped the MAC and ranked 30th in the country in total defense in 2009. The Huskies were also among the top 30 FBS teams in the country in scoring defense last season and held opponents below 125 yards per game on the ground. In 2008, his first season at NIU, Claeys and the defensive staff engineered one of the biggest turnarounds in the country, as the Huskies led the MAC in pass defense, total defense and scoring defense. The Huskies finished in the top 20 nationally in three categories - fifth in pass defense, 14th in scoring defense and 17th in total defense. Rivals.com named Claeys as the MAC's Defensive Coordinator of the Year for 2008.

Both Claeys and offensive coordinator Limegrover deserve credit for Northern Illinois' turnover margin of +0.79 per game in 2010, which ranked No. 2 in the MAC and No. 17 in the nation. The Huskie offense turned the ball over just 14 times in 13 games in 2010 to rank No. 5 in the nation.

Claeys' resumé also includes coaching several standout defensive players, most recently NIU's Larry English, the first-round draft choice of the NFL's San Diego Chargers in 2009. Claeys also coached Seattle Seahawks' 1999 first-round draft choice Lamar King at Saginaw Valley State. Claeys also tutored linebacker Bart Scott at Southern Illinois and now-retired defensive end Paul Spicer at Saginaw Valley St.

Claeys, who is from Clay Center, Kan., is a 1994 Kansas State graduate.

MATT LIMEGROVER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / OFFENSIVE LINE • FOURTH SEASON

THE LIMEGROVER FILE

Matt Limegrover is in his fourth season as the University of Minnesota's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

Despite starting only a few seniors on offense in 2013, Limegrover helped lead the Gophers to an average of 25.7 points per game, after averaging 21.3 points in 2012 and 18.4 points in 2011. Limegrover's charges scored 35 touchdowns on offense and racked up 4,463 total yards after scoring 31 touchdowns and recording 3,810 yards in 2012.

Minnesota finished 2013 with the No. 37 rushing offense in the nation (fifth in the Big Ten), having run the ball 586 times for 2,538 yards. That total was the most for Minnesota since it rushed for 3,277 in 2005 and was the first time it has produced more than 2,000 rushing yards in a season since 2006. Minnesota's 586 rushing attempts was its most since 2005 when it rushed 610 times. The Gophers ended 2013 with 23 rushing touchdowns, which was their most since 2006 when they had 25.

In addition to helping restore Minnesota's rushing attack, the offensive line, under the watchful eye of Limegrover, was disciplined all year as it took only 13 penalties (10 false starts, one hold, one illegal man downfield and one personal foul).

Limegrover has been on head coach Jerry Kill's staff since 1999. He began his coaching career in at the University of Chicago, where he coached the tight ends in 1991, the offensive line in 1992, became offensive coordinator in 1993 and interim head coach in 1994. Limegrover then moved on to a graduate assistant position at Northwestern for two seasons. He was the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at Ferris State in 1997 and 1998.

Limegrover then caught on with Kill as offensive line coach at Emporia State in 1999. He coached the offensive line and ran the offense when Kill took over the Southern Illinois program and maintained both of those responsibilities with NIU.

Limegrover was in charge of an offensive unit that ranked among the nation's best in 2010. The Huskies finished the season No. 7 in the nation and No. 1 in the MAC in rushing offense (260.4 ypg). NIU also led the MAC in scoring offense (38.0 ppg, No. 12 in the nation) and total offense (450.0 ypg, No. 19 in the nation).

In addition to the team rankings, Limegrover's NIU offense produced the No. 1 rusher in the MAC for two consecutive seasons. Chad Spann averaged just less than 100 yards per game and ranked No. 19 in the nation in rushing as a senior in 2010. Spann was a two-time first-team All-MAC selection and was chosen as the league's most valuable player in 2010.

During his three seasons at Northern Illinois, Limegrover's offensive linemen earned All Mid-American Conference recognition seven times, including 2010 first-team selections Scott Wedige and Trevor Olson.

The Huskie line gave up only 15 sacks in 2009. NIU also led the MAC and ranked 19th nationally in rushing with 202.42 yards per game that year. Limegrover spent seven seasons with Kill at Southern Illinois. With the Salukis, he coordinated a prolific offense that ranked in the top 10 in scoring for six straight years (2002-07).

During his tenure, SIU averaged 207.8 yards per game on the ground, and totaled more than 3,000 rushing yards in four different seasons. Four of the top five rushing seasons in school history came under the guidance of Limegrover. Limegrover's rushing offense gained more than 18,000 yards on the ground at SIU, and his passing attack produced better than a 2-1 touchdown-to-interception ratio.

Limegrover coached five FCS All-Americans at SIU, including two offensive linemen. Under Limegrover's direction, the Salukis' 2004 offense set school records for yards (502.7) and points (42.6) per game and touchdowns (67). In 2007, the Salukis produced 3,293 yards and scored 28 touchdowns through the air, also school records.

Both defensive coordinator Tracy Claeys and Limegrover deserve credit for Northern Illinois' turnover margin of +0.79 per game in 2010, which ranked No. 2 in the MAC and No. 17 in the nation. The Huskie offense turned the ball over just 14 times in 13 games this season to rank No. 5 in the nation.

Limegrover is a 1991 graduate of the University of Chicago. The Pittsburgh, Pa. native holds a master's degree from Northwestern, where he served as a graduate assistant coach and was a part of two Big Ten championship teams. He and his wife Ann have two children - Emma and TJ.

BRIAN ANDERSON

WIDE RECEIVERS • FOURTH SEASON

THE ANDERSON FILE

Brian Anderson is in his fourth season on the Gopher Football staff. He serves as Minnesota's wide receivers coach after leading the Gophers' running backs from 2011-2013.

In 2013, Anderson helped produce the Gophers' first 1,000-yard running back since 2006. In 13 games, junior David Cobb rushed for 1,202 yards to become the first back to rush for more than 1,000 yards (and 1,200 yards) since Amir Pinnix. In two of his three years at Minnesota, Anderson has coached a 900-yard back, as Donnell Kirkwood churned out 926 yards during his redshirt sophomore year in 2012.

Anderson had been on head coach Jerry Kill's staff for 10 years prior to taking his role with the Gophers. He coached the tight ends at Northern Illinois for three years and coached the wide receivers and kick returners at Southern Illinois from 2001-07.

Prior to joining Coach Kill's staff at Southern Illinois, Anderson coached at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College from 1997-2000. At Coffeyville, three of his student-athletes went on to play in the National Football League. Anderson also coached for two seasons at Highland Community College in Kansas (1996-97).

He began his coaching career at Western Illinois, serving as a student assistant in 1994, before being promoted to the restricted earnings position coaching the wide receivers in 1995-96.

Anderson's playing career began at Ellsworth Community College in Iowa Falls, Iowa. At Ellsworth, Anderson took part in the 1988 Royal Crown Cola Bowl and the 1989 Mid-American Bowl, the season's NJCAA national championship game. He then moved on to Western Illinois, where he lettered in 1991 and 1992.

Anderson holds a bachelor's degree from Western Illinois. He and his wife Kerri have a daughter, Annabelle.

JEFF PHELPS

DEFENSIVE LINE • FOURTH SEASON

THE PHELPS FILE

Jeff Phelps is in his fourth year as an assistant coach with the Golden Gophers. He coaches the defensive line.

In 2013, Phelps coached a defensive line that was anchored by first team All-Big Ten honoree and AP third-team All-American Ra'Shede Hageman. Hageman, who was drafted in the second round by the Atlanta Falcons, put up impressive numbers under Phelps, as he notched 38 tackles, 13 tackles-for-loss, two sacks, one interception, eight pass breakups and one fumble recovery.

Redshirt sophomore Theiren Cockran also flourished under Phelps' direction in 2013. Cockran had 30 tackles, 10 of which were for a loss, and led Minnesota with 7.5 sacks. Cockran, who led the Big Ten with four forced fumbles (tied for 13th in the nation) was also named second-team All-Big Ten by the media.

Phelps joined the Minnesota staff after spending five years coaching at Northern Illinois. From 2008-2010, he coached the Huskies' defensive line. In 2006-07, Phelps was responsible for coaching the Huskie defensive tackles.

Phelps coached defensive end Larry English at NIU. English went on to be named the Mid-American Conference's Most Valuable Player twice and was the 2008 MAC Defensive Player of the Year. He was the 16th overall pick in the 2009 NFL Draft, going to the San Diego Chargers.

Phelps began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Ball State in 1999. He then spent three seasons at DePauw, where he coached the running backs for two seasons before going to the defensive side of the ball to coach the line-backers. He then spent three seasons at Hillsdale (Mich.) College, where he coached the defensive line from 2003-05 before joining the staff at NIU.

Phelps was a Second-Team All-MAC player at outside linebacker for Ball State following his senior season in 1997. He was also an Honorable Mention All-MAC selection as a junior. The Chicago native holds a bachelor's degree from Ball State.

Phelps is a graduate of Crete-Monee High School, where he was a three-sport standout, earning seven letters - football (2), wrestling (2), track and field (3).

He and his wife Tyla have a son, Carsen, and a daughter, Harlyn.

PAT POORE

RUNNING BACKS • FOURTH SEASON

THE POORE FILE

Pat Poore is in his fourth season as an assistant coach at the University of Minnesota. He coaches the running backs, after leading the wide receivers for the Gophers from 2011-13.

In 2013, Poore oversaw the maturation of senior receiver Derrick Engel and the emergence of true freshmen Donovan Jones and Drew Wolitarsky. Engel led Minnesota with 25 catches, 401 yards and five touchdowns before suffering a season-ending knee injury. Wolitarsky finished the regular season with 15 catches for 259 yards and one touchdown. Jones, who switched from quarterback to receiver at the end of fall camp, made 10 catches for 157 yards in 11 games.

Poore is a 28-year veteran of college coaching. Prior to his time at Minnesota, he spent three seasons at Northern Illinois. His first two years at NIU were spent coaching the quarterbacks, while he coached the wide receivers in 2010.

Poore has coached with Gopher head coach Jerry Kill since 2001, when he joined the staff at Southern Illinois. With the Salukis, Poore coached the quarterbacks.

Poore coached in three consecutive bowl games at Northern Illinois and also coached in the NCAA FCS Playoffs for five consecutive seasons (2003-07) at Southern Illinois. With the Salukis, quarterback Nick Hill broke five single-season school records and was a Sports Network All-America performer. He also coached 2004 Gateway Conference Player of the Year Joel Sambursky, who still holds multiple SIU records.

Prior to joining Kill's staff, Poore was an assistant coach at Central Oklahoma (1999-2000), Tarleton State (1997-99) and Panhandle State (1995-96). Poore also served as head coach at Iowa Wesleyan in 1994 and 1995. He also served as an assistant coach at Iowa Wesleyan from 1992-94. Poore's coaching career has also included stops at Colorado School of Mines (1990-91) and the University of Chicago (1991-92), where he was on staff with Gopher offensive coordinator Matt Limegrover.

Poore began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater Fort Hays (Kan.) State in 1985. In 1987, he took a full-time position with Fort Hays State, while also coaching the Tigers' baseball team. In 1988, he gave up the baseball duties and was promoted to offensive coordinator, a role he served in until 1989. Poore is a graduate of Stockton (Kan.) High School.

Poore and his wife, Gwen have two grown children, Trevor and Taylor.

ROB REEVES

H-BACKS / TIGHT ENDS • FOURTH SEASON

THE REEVES FILE

Rob Reeves is in his fourth season coaching the Gophers' H-backs and tight ends.

Minnesota passed for 12 touchdowns in 2013 and six of those scores went to a tight end. Gopher tight ends and H-backs combined to haul in 41 of Minnesota's 137 completions last year with redshirt freshman Maxx Williams leading the way with 25 catches for 417 yards and five touchdowns. In 2012, Minnesota tight ends and H-backs caught seven of the team's 19 touchdown passes and 34 of the 175 completions.

Reeves' association with head coach Jerry Kill dates back to his playing days at Saginaw Valley State, where the Michigan native was an All-America quarterback.

For three seasons prior to joining the Minnesota staff, Reeves was the running backs coach at Northern Illinois. At each stop, Reeves has helped Kill develop some of the nation's top rushing attacks. Reeves coached NIU running back Chad Spann to back-to-back First-Team All-MAC honors in 2009 and 2010. Spann was named the MAC's Most Valuable Player in 2010 as well.

Prior to his stint at Northern Illinois, Reeves coached the running backs at Southern Illinois. Saluki running backs coached by Reeves earned four All-America accolades and eight all-conference awards. He also coached two Gateway Conference Newcomers of the Year.

Reeves also served as the running backs coach at Emporia State from 1999-2000. He was a graduate assistant at Saginaw Valley State from 1996-98. As a player at Saginaw Valley, Reeves was a two-year starter at quarterback and was an All-America selection in 1994. He was also a two-time All-Midwest Intercollegiate Conference selection.

Reeves holds a bachelor's and master's degree from Saginaw Valley State. He is a graduate of Saline (Mich.) High School.

Reeves and his wife Angie have four children -- Riley, Addison, Jackson and Brady.

JAY SAWVEL

DEFENSIVE BACKS / SPECIAL TEAMS • FOURTH SEASON

THE SAWVEL FILE

Jay Sawvel coaches the Minnesota defensive backs and special teams. He has coached under Jerry Kill for more than a decade, beginning at Southern Illinois in 2001 and moving on to Northern Illinois in 2008.

Despite replacing both starting corners and facing four of the top 15 wide receivers in the nation, Sawvel's charges allowed only 215.1 receiving yards per game to rank No. 35 in the nation in 2013. Minnesota also recorded 10 interceptions, while only giving up 16 passing touchdowns.

In 2013, Sawvel coached first-team All-Big Ten selection and Chicago Bears' fourth-round draft pick Brock Vereen, who broke up six passes and made 59 tackles as he played both corner and safety. In addition he oversaw a special teams unit that blocked two point-after attempts, one field goal and one punt.

In 2012, the Gophers ended the season ranked No. 12 in the nation in pass defense and No. 23 in pass efficiency, while recording 13 interceptions.

Sawvel helped lead NIU to a No. 14 national ranking in scoring defense in 2010. The Huskies also ranked No. 27 in total defense in 2010. Sawvel's defensive backs were an integral part of a Huskie defense that recorded 16 interceptions in 2010, to rank No. 27 in the nation. In each of Sawvel's first two seasons at Northern, the Huskies led the Mid-American Conference in total defense.

On special teams, the Huskies blocked 17 kicks in Sawvel's three seasons. The Gophers blocked one punt for a touchdown and returned two kickoffs for scores during the 2011 season. In 2012, Minnesota blocked a field goal in its bowl game and ranked fifth in the Big Ten in kickoff coverage (39.7 average).

Sawvel also coached defensive back Jimmie Ward while he was at NIU. Ward was selected in the first round of the 2014 NFL draft by San Francisco.

In seven seasons at Southern Illinois, Sawvel's defensive backs helped hold opposing offenses to just 18.5 points per game. In 2007, the Salukis tallied 21 interceptions (fourth most in the nation) and the defensive backs accounted for nearly 53 percent of the team's total tackles. In 2004, SIU led the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 13.2 points per game. The Salukis intercepted 17 passes, while allowing just 12 passing touchdowns.

Special teams were strong at SIU under Sawvel, as well. The Salukis ranked No. 1 in the Gateway Conference and No. 7 in the nation in net punting, while leading the conference and ranking No. 6 in the country in kickoff returns. Sawvel coached two special teams All-Americans in 2007. Overall, Sawvel's units blocked multiple kicks in six of his seven years at SIU.

Prior to coaching at SIU, Sawvel coached at Ferris State in 1999 and 2000. FSU won the 1999 Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference title in 1999. Sawvel also has experience as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame and Eastern Kentucky.

On the field, Sawvel was a three-year letterwinner and an all-conference linebacker in 1993 at Division III power Mount Union. He holds a bachelor's degree from Mount Union and master's degrees from both Eastern Kentucky and Notre Dame.

Sawvel and his wife, Jeannine, have two daughters, Mackenzie and Miranda.

MIKE SHERELS

LINEBACKERS • FIRST SEASON

THE SHERELS FILE

Mike Sherels was promoted to linebacker coach in March 2014 and led the linebackers for the first time during 2014 spring practice.

Sherels worked with the linebackers as a defensive graduate assistant in 2013 and most recently was an assistant coordinator of recruiting operations with the Gophers. Sherels joined the staff in early 2011 as a special assistant to the head coach. He has also worked closely with Minnesota's alumni.

The Rochester, Minn., native graduated from Minnesota in 2007 with a degree in business and marketing education and received his master's degree in May 2014. He played for the Gophers from 2003-07 and served as a captain during his junior and senior year. He is the only Minnesota walk-on ever to be named a two-time captain. Sherels started 30 games and recorded 219 tackles during his four-year career. His 104 tackles in 2006 led the Gophers.

Sherels' career at Minnesota was also decorated with off-field accolades. As a senior, he was honored with the Neil Fredenburg Award for Courage and Love of the Game. As a junior, he was presented with the Carl Eller Award as the team's most outstanding defensive player and the Paul Giel Award for Unselfishness and Most Concern About the University of Minnesota.

Sherels and his wife, Emily, have one daughter, Valerie, who was born in Texas, while the Gophers were in Houston for the 2012 Meineke Car Care Bowl.

JIM ZEBROWSKI

QUARTERBACKS • FOURTH SEASON

THE ZEBROWSKI FILE

Jim Zebrowski is in his fourth season on the Gopher coaching staff. He is responsible for coaching the quarterbacks.

Zebrowski has overseen the maturation of Minnesota's Mitch Leidner, as the redshirt sophomore quarterback has gone from running the scout team to starting for his homestate school. Leidner started four games last year, played in 10 and emerged as the Gophers top signal-caller in the Texas Bowl. Last season, Leidner rushed for 407 yards and seven touchdowns, while also passing for 619 yards and three scores.

Zebrowski and the Gophers started three different quarterbacks in 2012 and Minnesota still passed for 19 touchdowns after throwing for only 10 in 2011.

Prior to joining the Gophers, Zebrowski spent the 2010 season as the quarterbacks coach at Northern Illinois. At NIU, he mentored the now Indianapolis Colt Chandler Harnish to First-Team All-MAC honors and coached Jordan Lynch, who finished third in the 2013 Heisman Trophy voting.

Prior to joining the NIU staff, Zebrowski was the offensive coordinator and coached the quarterbacks at NCAA Division III power Wisconsin-Whitewater for three seasons. During Zebrowski's tenure at UW-Whitewater, the Warhawks won the 2007 and 2009 NCAA Division III National Championship and finished as the runner-up in 2008. The Warhawks compiled a 42-3 record during Zebrowski's three seasons, including a perfect 15-0 mark in 2009. Zebrowski was named the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and the FootballScoop.com Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2009.

Prior to his time at UW-Whitewater, Zebrowski spent four seasons as the head coach at Lakeland College in Sheboygan, Wis. His Lakeland teams compiled a 28-12 mark, including a 24-4 record in the Illini-Badger Football Conference. Lakeland won the 2004 and 2005 conference championships and advanced to the Division III playoffs for the first time in school history in 2005. His Muskie teams never finished lower than second place in the league.

Zebrowski was the offensive coordinator at Millikin from 2000-03. He was a graduate assistant at Southern Illinois in 1997, before being elevated to a full-time position. He coached the tight ends, wide receivers and quarterbacks during his time at SIU.

Zebrowski began his coaching career in the high school ranks, serving as the offensive coordinator at Preble Shawnee (Ohio) High School from 1991-94 and in the same role at Berea (Ohio) High School from 1994-97.

Zebrowski earned his bachelor's degree from Mount Union, where he played in 1987 and 1988. He also holds a master's degree from Southern Illinois and is a graduate of Strongsville (Ohio) High School.

Zebrowski and his wife, Heather, who was named Female Athlete of the Year during her volleyball playing days at Southern Illinois, have two children, Zachary and Lauryn.

JEFF JONES

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL • THIRD SEASON

THE JONES FILE

Jeff Jones is in his third season on the Minnesota staff in 2014, but his first as the Gophers' Director of Player Personnel. He had previously served as an assistant coordinator of recruiting operations for two seasons.

In his new role, Jones oversees the day-to-day operation for the football student-athletes and works closely with the coaching, recruiting, academic and communication staffs.

Prior to joining the Gophers, he was the coordinator of academic support at Southern Illinois. Jones managed all academic support for the athletic department and hosted recruits during official visits for football, women's basketball, softball and track and field. Jones began working in academics with football at Southern Illinois as a graduate assistant in 2007 under coach Jerry Kill.

Jones, who played defensive line, was a member of coach Kill's first recruiting class at Southern Illinois in 2001. Jones, who was a three-time captain at Southern Illinois, redshirted his freshman year when the Salukis went 1-10. He then helped lead Southern Illinois to records of 4-8, 10-2, 10-2 and 9-4, which included three straight conference championships from 2003-05.

Jones, who grew up in Detroit, Mich., attended the former St. Martin DePorres high school before receiving his bachelor's degree (2006) and master's degree (2008) from Southern Illinois.

CHAD PEARSON

ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

Chad Pearson was named assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Gopher football program in December 2010. Pearson came to Minnesota after two years as the assistant sports performance coach at Northern Illinois University.

Pearson assists in the planning and programming of off-season speed development, agility training and overall energy-system advancement for the Gophers. He also directs team nutritional supplementation and training schedules, while assisting with student-athlete data management and analytics.

In his two years at NIU, Pearson worked with women's basketball, football, baseball and softball.

His previous experience includes work as a graduate assistant at Southern Illinois University and also at NIU while finishing up his master's degree in kinesiology. He earned his master's degree from Southern Illinois in 2009.

A 2006 graduate of Buena Vista University in Storm Lake, Iowa, Chad was a two-sport athlete while playing tailback for the Beaver football team and a sprinter on the track team. He earned all-conference honors on both the gridiron and the track.

The native of Polk City, Iowa, is a graduate of North Polk High School in Alleman, Iowa.

Pearson is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the NSCA and also a member of USAW as a USAW Sports Performance Coach. He is also an international level Brazilian Jiu Jitsu practitioner.

Pearson is married to the former Rachel Green.

DUSTIN PERRY

ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

Dustin Perry was named assistant strength and conditioning coach in February 2012.

In his current role, Perry assists head strength and conditioning coach Eric Klein in the education, assessment and development of the mental and physical qualities needed to achieve success on the football field.

Before joining the Minnesota strength and conditioning staff, Perry worked with Josh Heupel's 14 Foundation and its Day of Champions event. He served as the Head Strength and Conditioning Coach for the program.

Perry also has experience as a performance coach at Fit 4 Austin in Austin, Texas. In that role he was responsible for instruction and assessment of students of all levels with various athletic backgrounds. In addition, Perry has also served as a strength and conditioning coach at Marcellus (Mich.) Public High School in 2008.

A 2009 graduate of Western Michigan University, Perry also has a master's degree in Applied Kinesiology from Minnesota. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the NSCA and is certified in Child and Adult CPR.

Perry and his wife, Adrienne, were married on July 19, 2014.

SHEA THOMPSON

ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

Shea Thompson was named assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Gopher football program in January 2012.

Thompson came to Minnesota after a four-month internship at the United States Olympic Training Center in Colorado Springs. Prior to his internship at the USOTC, he was the Director of Athletic Physical Preparation at Fit2Live in Iowa City, Iowa.

During his time at Fit2Live, Thompson was involved in developing all aspects of training for athletes whose age and skill level ranged from junior high to professional athletes. Thompson also served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach and a graduate assistant at Northern Illinois from August 2008 through June 2010.

His previous experience included work as an assistant intern at the University of Nebraska. Thompson also served as the volleyball strength and conditioning coach at Buena Vista (Iowa) University during his undergraduate career.

A 2007 graduate of Buena Vista University, Thompson also holds a master's degree from Northern Illinois. He played football for Buena Vista and also holds a blue belt in Gracie Jiu-Jitsu.

Thompson, who is the older brother of assistant strength coach Kane Thompson, is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the NSCA.

Thompson and his wife, Brynja, were married on July 12, 2014.

KANE THOMPSON

ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

Kane Thompson joined the Gopher football staff in April 2014 as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Thompson came to Minnesota after working as an assistant sports performance coach at Purdue from May 2011 to April 2014 where he worked with the football, wrestling, and the men's and women's diving teams.

While working with the Boilermakers' football team he was part of a staff that was responsible for the design of periodized training cycles, research, implementation and coaching of training programs for skill position players (2011-2012) and big skill position players (2013). He also worked with others to develop training recovery protocol routines and nutritional guidelines and meal planning.

Prior to his time at Purdue, Thompson was a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at Northern Iowa in 2011 and was an assistant strength and conditioning coach intern at United Sport & Athlete: XL Acceleration in 2009.

Thompson played linebacker and safety at Northern Iowa where he was a two-year letterwinner. He also earned his bachelor's degree (2009) and his master's degree (2011) from Northern Iowa.

Thompson, who is the younger brother of Gopher assistant strength coach Shea Thompson, is a certified USAW sports performance coach and is certified in CPR, AED use and first aid.

Thompson and his wife, Brittany, reside in the Minneapolis area.

CORY HANSON

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Cory Hanson is in his first season as a defensive graduate assistant for the Gophers. He transitioned to the new role after two seasons as an assistant recruiting coordinator beginning in February 2012.

Hanson, a native of Minneapolis, played linebacker for Northern Illinois and was a four-time letterwinner. He was a captain in the two years he played after head coach Jerry Kill's arrival, 2008 and 2009. Hanson also represented the football team on NIU's Student Athlete Advising Council (SAAC).

Following his playing career, Hanson was an intern coach for the Northern Illinois defense during the 2011 season. He was responsible for coordinating the scout team offense and preparing the starting defense for weekly opponents.

Hanson earned two degrees at Northern Illinois University. His 2009 bachelor's degree was in organizational/corporate communications, and his 2011 master's was in counseling, adult and higher education

TREVOR OLSON

OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Trevor Olson is in his second year as an offensive graduate assistant and works primarily with the offensive line. He previously worked in the Minnesota player personnel department in 2012.

Olson, who is a Richfield, Minn., native, played offensive tackle at Northern Illinois, where he started an NCAA-record 54 games during his career, which included four bowl games. He was a consensus All-Mid-American Conference selection each of his last two seasons. Olson earned national recognition on the preseason watch lists for the Outland Trophy and Rotary Lombardi Award. He was named a fourth-team All-American by Phil Steele in 2011.

Olson was a main reason why NIU ranked 11th nationally in both total offense and rushing offense in 2011 and why NIU ranked seventh in rushing in 2010. Off the field, Olson was a two-year member of the Team Leadership Council.

Olson earned his bachelor's degree in history from NIU in 2011.

MIKE McELROY

Mike McElroy joined the Golden Gopher football program as a defensive graduate assistant before the 2014 season.

Last fall, McElroy coached football and taught physical education at Elverado-Trico High School. At age 24, he was the youngest head coach in southern Illinois. Under McElroy, five Falcons earned all-conference honors, which was the most in program history in the past seven years.

His previous coaching experience includes serving as assistant defensive backs and wide receivers coach at Marion High School. In 2011, McElroy attended the AFCA's Future Coaches of America Academy.

During his playing career at Southern Illinois, McElroy was the starting strong safety and a two-time team captain. He twice earned All-Missouri Valley Conference First Team accolades. He played for head coach Jerry Kill as a freshman in 2007. In his 2010 season, which was cut short by injury, McElroy was a candidate for the Buck Buchanan Award (national player of the year). He also created and promoted the Salukis Black Out Cancer Game, which started in 2011 when he was a senior.

McElroy earned his bachelor's degree in health education from Southern Illinois in 2012. In addition to his on-field football honors, he was also named an Athletic Directors Association Academic All-Star and a member of the MVC All-Academic Team.

RYAN MAIURI

OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Ryan Maiuri is in his second year as an offensive graduate assistant in 2014. He previously worked as a program assistant for the Gophers.

Prior to arriving at Minnesota, Maiuri served as assistant coach for quarterbacks at Adrian College (Mich.), where his quarterback earned all-conference honors in 2011. Maiuri spent the previous year as tight ends coach at Winona State.

Maiuri coached defensive backs for two years at Lakeland College (Wis.), his alma mater. During 2007-08, he coached seven All-Northern Athletics Conference defensive backs and assisted the Muskies to their third conference title in four years. Lakeland was ranked third nationally in interceptions and had four other team and individual top-25 rankings in defensive categories.

Maiuri earned a degree in history (2006) and a master's in counseling (2008) from Lakeland College. He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association.

NATE GRIFFIN

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Nate Griffin is in his third season on the Golden Gopher football staff and serves as Minnesota's offensive quality control assistant. He is in charge of opponent scouting, self scouting, and the day-to-day operations on the offensive side of the ball.

Griffin came to Minnesota from Truman State University in Kirksville, Mo., where he served as the defensive line coach in 2011. Griffin worked with Gopher head coach Jerry Kill at Northern Illinois as a graduate assistant in 2008 and 2009, where he worked with the running backs and fullbacks.

Griffin was on staff at Northern Colorado from 2006-07, assisting in recruiting and overseeing video operations. He played at the University of Idaho from 2000-2003.

Griffin was a student-assistant strength coach at Idaho in 2004 and then worked for one year at Poudre High School in Fort Collins, Colo., as the linebackers coach.

Griffin, who holds a bachelor's degree from Idaho and a master's degree in sports administration from Northern Colorado, has one daughter and one son with his wife Amy.

MELVIN RICE

DEFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

Melvin Rice joined the Golden Gopher football staff in 2011. He serves as Minnesota's defensive quality control assistant where he is in charge of opponent scouting, self scouting, and the day-to-day operations on the defensive side of the ball.

Rice came to Minnesota from Northern Illinois, where he coached and played under head coach Jerry Kill. He served as a graduate assistant, coaching defensive backs in 2010 at NIU. The Huskies went 11-3 in 2010, winning the Humanitarian Bowl and earning the Mid-American Conference West Division title.

Prior to his coaching stint at NIU, Rice coached the defensive backs at Chicago's Morgan Park High School in 2009. He helped lead Morgan Park to the conference championship and a berth in the State playoffs.

Rice briefly played professional football for the Green Bay Blizzard in the Indoor Football League in 2010 before heading to NIU as a graduate assistant. In college, Rice was a three-year starter for the Huskies. He was named the team's Most Valuable Defensive Back in 2008 and was an All-MAC honorable mention.

Rice holds a bachelor's degree from Northern Illinois.

JAY NUNEZ

SPECIAL TEAMS QUALITY CONTROL

Jay Nunez is in his second season on the Minnesota staff serving as the Gophers' special teams quality control assistant.

He organizes and runs all facets of opponent special teams scouting, manages the specialists and handles all other day-to-day operations for special teams. Nunez also assists Minnesota's offense with opponent breakdowns and other tasks.

Nunez was an intern for Minnesota during the 2011 season.

Prior to his arrival at Minnesota, Nunez served as graduate assistant and tech assistant at Pittsburg State. He worked with both the offensive and defensive lines at Pittsburg State and also led video sessions, developed game and weight room plans and scouted and assisted with recruiting.

Nunez earned his bachelor's degree and master's degree from Pittsburg State, where he was also a four-year letterwinner on the football team.

Nunez captained the Gorillas as a senior and earned numerous academic honors during his playing career. He was a semi-finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy in 2009, which is awarded by the National Football Foundation and is given to the American college football player with the best combination of academics, community service and on-field performance.

Nunez and his wife, Ashley, were married on March 10, 2012.

JOHN SCHAECKEL

ASSISTANT COORDINATOR OF RECRUITING OPERATIONS

John Schaeckel is entering his fourth season on the Minnesota staff. Schaeckel assisted player personnel during his first year on staff and has served as an assistant coordinator of recruiting operations for the past three years.

Prior to joining the Minnesota staff, he was the linebackers coach at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas in 2010. He was also the defensive coordinator at Rochester Community and Technical College in Minnesota in 2009.

During 2007 and 2008, Schaeckel served as the defensive graduate assistant at Northwestern State University in Louisiana, working with linebackers and the defensive line.

He began his coaching career at Midwestern State University in 2006, serving as the defensive graduate assistant and coaching the outside linebackers.

Schaeckel holds a bachelor's degree from Valparaiso University (2006), where he played safety for the football team. He also holds a master's degree from Northwestern State University (2009).

Schaeckel grew up in St. Paul, Minn., and attended Concordia Academy in Roseville before moving to Texas and finishing high school outside of the Houston area at Concordia Lutheran.

Schaeckel and his wife Sarah were married on March 15, 2004.

MORGAN LIGGETT

ASSISTANT COORDINATOR OF RECRUITING OPERATIONS

Morgan Liggett joined the Minnesota staff as an assistant coordinator of recruiting operations in May 2014.

Prior to joining the Gophers, he was the associate director of football operation and director of recruiting operations at the Colorado School of Mines from July 2011 to April 2014. In addition to managing every aspect of football operations and recruiting, Liggett also organized the school's youth camps, assisted in weekly scouting reports and served as the offensive scout team coordinator.

From July 2009 to June 2011, Liggett was an operations and recruiting graduate assistant at Northern Illinois University. In addition to working in operations and recruiting, he also helped with communications, player personnel, academics and events surrounding gameday.

Liggett was a double-major at the University of Colorado receiving his degree in anthropology (2005) and ethnic studies (2008) before receiving his master's degree in sport management from Northern Illinois (2011).

The Fort Collins, Colo., native and his wife Stephanie reside in the Minneapolis area.

OTHER STADIUM NOTES

- When completed, TCF Bank Stadium became the first new football stadium in the Big Ten since 1960 and the first in NCAA FBS since 2006 (additional NCAA FBS stadiums have since been built).
- The Gophers locker room is a state-of-the-art 60 x 25-yard area, shaped like a football with 120 custom-built lockers and 10 LCD televisions.
- The Gophers have a private recruiting room that can accommodate 150 people.
- The main high-definition video display in the stadium is one of the largest in college sports at approximately 48 feet high by 108 feet wide. It boasts Daktronics HD-16 technology and was the first of its kind in the Big Ten Conference.
- The University achieved LEED certification (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) for TCF Bank Stadium, making it the first LEED certified college football stadium in America. The certification is achieved by accumulating credits for various environmentally and sustainable efforts in design and construction.
- In addition to Minnesota college football games, TCF Bank Stadium has hosted Gopher hockey games, Monday Night Football, MLB All-Star concert and U2. The Minnesota Vikings will also play their 2014 and 2015 seasons at TCF Bank Stadium, while their new stadium is being constructed.

H.H.H. METRODOME 1982-2008

The Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome, home of Golden Gopher football 1982-2008, is the nation's largest air-supported, multiple-use facility. It has been the site of two World Series, a Super Bowl and two NCAA Final Fours, and has kept over five million college football fans warm as they watched and cheered University of Minnesota football. The Gophers played their final season in the Dome in 2008 before heading back on campus for the opening of TCF Bank Stadium.

In addition to serving as the home facility for the Golden Gophers, the Metrodome is home to the Minnesota Vikings and Twins. In 1989, it also served as home to the Timberwolves, who set the all-time NBA attendance record in their inaugural season.

The Metrodome is located in downtown Minneapolis, just minutes away from the University campus. Its seating capacity is listed at 64,172, but more than 65,000 fans have packed the place for Minnesota football, including a crowd of 65,089 for the game against border-rival Wisconsin in 2005. A stadium record 65,184 attended the Minnesota-Iowa game in 2002.

MEMORIAL STADIUM 1924-1981

Opened on Oct. 4, 1924, Memorial Stadium served as the home of the Golden Gophers for 57 years. The stadium was dedicated to the 3,527 university workers and graduates who served in World War I, 98 of whom died in service. Built on approximately 11 acres where the current University Recreation Center, Aquatic Center and McNamara Alumni Center stand today, Memorial Stadium had 52,736 permanent seats but could seat over 56,000. The horseshoe-shaped stadium also served as the home track and field facility. With the addition of temporary bleacher seating, more than 60,000 fans could fit into Memorial Stadium as a stadium-record 66,284 fans watched Minnesota face Purdue on Nov. 18, 1966.

The stadium, which took seven months to construct, cost $572,000 to build. More than 475 workers were employed for the construction that required more than 1.4 million feet of lumber, one million bricks and 90,000 sacks of cement. Minnesota played its first game in Memorial Stadium on Oct. 4, 1924, defeating North Dakota 14-0. Tickets for the inaugural game were just one dollar.

The Golden Gophers had a stellar record in Memorial Stadium, including 12 unbeaten seasons at home. They didn't suffer a losing season at home from the building's inception in 1924 until 1950, a span of 26 years.

Memorial Stadium was changed to artificial turf in 1970 but then switched back to natural grass in 1977. The stadium was demolished in 1989 and 2,000 of the original bricks were used in the building of Mariucci Arena. University officials debated renovation of Memorial Stadium, but instead opted for a move to the Metrodome.

GREATER NORTHROP FIELD 1899-1923

Named in honor of University President Cyrus Northrop, Greater Northrop Field opened its doors in 1899. Prior to the stadium's construction, the University of Minnesota played on a field south of the Armory. The grandstand consisted of chairs around the sidelines. When rates for a downtown stadium increased, the University found it a necessity for an enclosed stadium on the campus.

Built in front of Pillsbury Hall, which still stands today, the Northrop Field originally featured a nine-foot high board fence built by the student body. A quarter-mile track ran around the playing field. Alfred Pillsbury organized the building of a massive brick fence that was built around the original grandstand that made Northrop Field unlike any other stadium in the country at the time. The grandstand seated 8,000 fans and was 33 rows high. Additional seating in the end zones added to the seating capacity.

Minnesota played its first game at Northrop Field in November of 1899 against Northwestern where it suffered an 11-5 defeat. The last game was played in 1923 when Minnesota beat Iowa 20-7. Perhaps the most memorable game was a 6-6 tie with Michigan when an over capacity 20,000 fans crowded into the stadium.

1904 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

In 1904, Minnesota went 13-0 and outscored its opponents by an unthinkable total of 725-12 and shut out 12 of its 13 opponents. The 725 points remains the second-most ever scored by a major college football team (FBS) in a season, just behind Harvard's total of 765 set in 1886. Minnesota's 146-0 victory over Grinnell was the most lopsided victory in college football history for 13 years. The only time the Gophers were challenged during the 1904 season was a 16-12 decision over Nebraska on October 29 and an 11-0 shutout of Iowa on the road to end the season. Seven of Minnesota's 13 victories were by at least 47 points.

Moses Strathern was named a First Team All-American while Walton Thorpe and quarterback Sigmund Harris were named Third Team All-Americans.

The Gophers, under head coach Henry Williams, had established themselves as one of the dominant programs in the nation during this period, owning a 35-game unbeaten streak from 1903-05.

The Gophers were awarded the 1904 national title by Billingsley while Michigan and Pennsylvania were given national titles for the 1904 season by other organizations retroactively. All national titles prior to the beginning of the Associated Press wire poll in 1936 were decided retroactively by math formulas or historical research groups.

Moses Strathern (above) and Sigmund Harris (below) were named All-Americans in 1904.

1934 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The Golden Gopher football program is one built strongly on tradition. After winning the first-ever Big Nine team title in 1900 and outscoring opponents by an incredible 618-12 margin in 1903, the University of Minnesota football team finally won its first national championship in 1934.

Under the leadership of third-year coach Bernie Bierman, the Golden Gophers averaged 33.7 points during the 1934 campaign, relying heavily on a potent running attack. The running game accounted for nearly 295 of the 325 yards the Maroon and Gold averaged each game. The Golden Gophers were equally productive on the defensive side of the ball, shutting-out four of their eight opponents, while holding them to a meager 4.7 points and 103 yards per game.

Three players led Minnesota while earning All-America honors — Francis “Pug” Lund, Bill Bevan and Butch Larson, who earned the honor for a second straight year. Larson became only the fourth Golden Gopher to earn All-America status for two straight years, and is among 14 players to date in Minnesota history to earn such a distinction. In addition to Lund, Bevan and Larson, the Golden Gophers featured three more All-Big Ten players. Perhaps the biggest key to Minnesota’s success, however, was a running attack which saw eight different players score touchdowns during the season, led by Stan Kostka with nine touchdowns, including a four-touchdown game.

The talented Golden Gopher team cruised through the first two games of the season with a 56-12 pounding of North Dakota State and a 20-0 victory over Nebraska.

After two weeks of rest, Minnesota looked flat against the Pittsburgh Panthers. They trailed 7-0 after three quarters and were destroyed in nearly every statistical category. The Golden Gophers’ hopes for a perfect season were fading. Minnesota was down, but they were not beaten. In the fourth quarter, Larson took the game over by recovering a fumble which led to a touchdown. On the very next series, he threw the winning pass into the end zone. Minnesota’s dream for a title refused to die.

The following weekend, the Golden Gophers rebounded in style by crushing the rival Iowa Hawkeyes in Iowa City, Iowa, 48-12. Head Coach Bernie Bierman couldn’t have been happier with his team’s reaction to their sub-par performance against Pittsburgh. The Golden Gophers held the Hawkeyes to 129 total yards. Minnesota, on the other hand, had little problem moving the ball as they racked up an astounding 514 yards on offense, all of them coming from the running game. Minnesota was led by the exceptional performance of Kostka, who had another outstanding game, scoring three touchdowns, as well as Julius Alfonsie, who rushed for two scores.

After dismantling Iowa, Minnesota was still eager to get back on the field. The next opponent was Michigan, and the Golden Gophers sought revenge. They had not brought the Little Brown Jug back to Memorial Stadium since 1927. Michigan came into Minneapolis sporting a 1-3 record and as the game progressed, proved that a vast talent gap existed between the two teams. Minnesota breezed by the Wolverines 34-0 and the Golden Gopher defense continued to impress crowds as they held Michigan scoreless on a mere 56 total yards for the game. In the meantime, the Maroon and Gold running attack never lost a step as five different players scored touchdowns.

The Golden Gophers continued to roll over opponents in the ensuing weeks, beating Indiana 30-0 and Chicago 35-7. Indiana gained a grand total of zero yards against the smothering Minnesota defense, while Chicago was able to manage 82 yards. With four solid games since the Pittsburgh scare, Bierman and the Golden Gophers had every right to be confident about their chances of winning a conference and national championship heading into Wisconsin.

The Badgers were not a high-scoring team, nor did they allow teams many touchdowns. On this day, however, the Golden Gophers flexed their muscle and scored 34 points against a defense that had only allowed 50 previously. With the victory over Wisconsin, Minnesota wrapped up its perfect season and first national championship.

Minnesota’s 1934 national title team had three All-Americans in Butch Larson, Pug Lund and Bill Bevan.

1935 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Bernie Bierman started his first season as the head football coach at Minnesota in 1935. After leading the Golden Gophers to their first national championship in 1934, expectations ran high for both Bierman and the team.

While the Golden Gophers were hurt by the graduation of three All-Americans from the 1934 season, three other players stepped up their play to earn the same honor in 1935. Tackles Ed Widseth and Dick Smith, along with guard Bud Wilkinson earned All-America honors, while quarterback Babe LeVoi and fullback Sheldon Beise joined the All-America threesome on the All-Big Ten team.

Minnesota opened the 1935 season with a schedule mirroring the previous season with games against North Dakota State and Nebraska to start the year. While the outcome was ultimately the same with the Golden Gophers netting two victories, the offensive production was not quite as stunning. After defeating NDSU 26-6, Minnesota traveled to Lincoln, Neb., to take on the Cornhuskers.

Nebraska showed improvement from the previous season when the Golden Gophers rolled over them 20-0. Minnesota headed into the second quarter trailing 7-6, but was able to put another touchdown on the board before the half to lead 12-7. Nebraska's defense was outstanding the remainder of the game and did not allow the Golden Gophers another touchdown. The Minnesota defense was just as stellar, however, and the Golden Gophers walked away from Lincoln with a 12-7 victory.

While Minnesota's offense was not putting up the same numbers as 1934, the Golden Gopher defense remained just as stifling. Against Nebraska the defense allowed only five first downs and 110 yards, so it was no surprise when Tulane ran into the same brick wall the next weekend in Minneapolis.

The visitors from Louisiana could do nothing right against Minnesota's superior defense, which held them to a mere 60 yards for the game. Minnesota's offense was still sputtering, however, as it managed only 183 total yards, all of them on the ground. The Golden Gophers beat Tulane soundly by a score of 20-0, but there was a bit of concern surrounding offensive production heading into the Northwestern game.

The last time the Golden Gophers played Northwestern was in 1933 when the two teams battled to a 0-0 tie. The result in 1935 was much the same and after three quarters Minnesota held a meager 14-13 lead. Northwestern threatened to move into scoring position late in the fourth quarter, but Wilkinson intercepted a Wildcat pass and returned it to the Northwestern 15-yard line. The Golden Gophers went on to score a touchdown and earn a hard-fought 21-13 win.

If there was any concern over the status of Golden Gopher football after the Northwestern game, Bierman's squad was quick to put it to rest. The Northwestern game was the turning point for Minnesota.

After Northwestern, the Golden Gophers went on to pound opponents by a total score of 115-20 and Beise scored five of his seven touchdowns for the season in those four games. The Minnesota offense seemed to be back on track, but it was tested one last time against the University of Iowa.

The Iowa game held a bit more importance for Minnesota than it had in years past. After the 1934 game in which Minnesota had knocked Iowa's star running back Ozzie Simmons out of the game, Iowa fans were livid and talks of post game mobs buzzed throughout Iowa City. Governor Clyde Herring expressed the same emotion and said, "If the officials stand for any rough tactics like Minnesota used last year, I'm sure the crowd won't."

This caused some concern for Minnesotans and Governor Floyd Olson. In attempt to cool tempers on both sides, Olson bet a prize Minnesota hog against a prize Iowa hog as a friendly gesture. So began the tradition of "Floyd of Rosedale," with the Golden Gophers winning a clean, hard-fought game 13-6 and Olson earning himself a prize Iowa hog.

Minnesota cruised through the remainder of its schedule, beating Michigan, 40-0, and Wisconsin, 33-7. Once again the Golden Gophers had wrapped up an undefeated season and also a national championship by beating the Badgers.

Minnesota's 1935 national title team had three All-Americans in Bud Wilkinson, Dick Smith and Ed Widseth.

1936 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Prior to the 1936 football season, the Minnesota football team had gone 24 games without a loss and won back-to-back national titles in both 1934 and 1935. Needless to say, a national championship trend had caught on at the U of M, so the goals for 1936 proved to be no different.

What was going to be different about the 1936 season was the level of competition that the Maroon and Gold would face. Instead of beating up on smaller schools in non-conference games, Head Coach Bernie Bierman added two tough games to the schedule. Rather than playing North Dakota State and Tulane, the Golden Gophers would travel to the University of Washington to take on the fifth-ranked Huskies, and then the University of Texas at home. The tough schedule combined with previous struggles the Golden Gophers had experienced against Northwestern and Nebraska, appeared to present a challenge for the two-time national champions.

Minnesota was set to open the 1936 season against Washington in Seattle, but it was a game that almost did not happen.

The Golden Gophers boarded the train in Minneapolis on Tuesday of that week for a four-day trip to the Pacific Northwest. Coach Bierman scheduled two practices along the way, one in Miles City, Mont., and one in Spokane, Wash., but it was a one-night stay in Missoula, Mont., that almost cost Minnesota its chance with the Huskies.

Asleep in the Florence Hotel in Missoula, the Golden Gophers were forced to wake up around 3 a.m. after it was discovered the building was on fire. The fire destroyed most of the hotel, forcing the team to return to the train for the remainder of the evening. Luckily, nobody was hurt in the disaster.

Once in Seattle, as expected, the game proved a tough one for Minnesota. The stadium was packed with 40,000 Washington fans cheering for the local team. The Huskies tied the Golden Gophers, 7-7, in the third quarter, but to no avail.

The play of Minnesota's Bud Wilkinson and Julian Alfonso proved too much for Washington. Wilkinson knocked down several Washington passes and kicked two extra points before catching a 60-yard pass to put the Golden Gophers in scoring position in the fourth quarter. Alfonso almost single-handedly shut down the Husky offense as he intercepted three passes at the goal line and led Minnesota's ground attack. As a result, Minnesota's win-streak remained in tact as they defeated Washington 14-7.

After narrowly escaping from Seattle with a victory, the Golden Gophers returned home to take on Nebraska the following week. With a grueling trip behind them and an improved Cornhusker team on the field, Minnesota had a difficult time with the second game of the year as well. Nebraska put up a valiant fight, but the Golden Gopher defense foiled the Cornhuskers who could not find the end zone in a 7-0 Minnesota win.

The first two games of the season had threatened Minnesota's win streak, but the next two games left no doubt why the Golden Gophers were the reigning two-time defending national champions. Minnesota romped over Purdue 33-0, and handed Michigan a 26-0 loss to bring home the Little Brown Jug for the third year in a row.

The two solid victories against Michigan and Purdue led into another huge game for the Golden Gophers at Northwestern. Northwestern was highly-ranked in the national polls and it appeared as if this game would determine the Big Ten and possibly the national champion.

Game day conditions were less than ideal as wind and rain persisted throughout the game, hindering ball movement by both teams. Neither team made a serious threat to score in the first half and all statistics were virtually even. The scoreless battle continued until the fourth quarter.

The Wildcats scored at the beginning of the fourth quarter, but failed to convert the extra point attempt. Minnesota put together three furious drives, all edging inside Northwestern's 20-yard line. The Golden Gophers were on the brink of defeat for the first time in 28 games. The Maroon and Gold saw their last chance slip away as a fourth down pass into the end zone was batted away with less than six minutes left. Minnesota's win streak was over. Northwestern dealt the Golden Gophers their first defeat in three years.

Minnesota came out of the Northwestern game with something to prove. They did just that. The Golden Gophers ripped through Iowa, 52-0, to bring home Floyd of Rosedale for the second consecutive time. They also crushed Texas, 47-19, and finished off the season against Wisconsin with a 24-0 victory.

Amazingly enough, even with a loss and no Big Ten Conference title, Minnesota was still voted the 1936 national champion. The Golden Gophers may have lost to Northwestern, but allowed only two other opponents to score. The thorough dominance Minnesota had demonstrated earned them an unprecedented third straight national championship.

Bernie Bierman led Minnesota to its third straight national title in 1936.

1940 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

After three straight national championships from 1934-36, the University of Minnesota suffered its first losing season under legendary coach Bernie Bierman in 1939 when it finished 3-4-1. The experience proved a humbling one for the Golden Gophers who were not accustomed to losing and the result was unpredictable. Minnesota rallied from a mediocre season to win its fourth national championship in 1940.

The Golden Gopher offense was highlighted by the dynamic running tandem of George Franck and Bruce Smith who, together, combined to score over 60 percent of the touchdowns for the Maroon and Gold. Smith starred by scoring winning touchdowns on three separate occasions, while Franck was named an All-American at the conclusion of the season — highlighted by his four touchdowns against the University of Iowa.

Before Minnesota could face a Big Ten opponent, they had to battle with such highly-touted non-conference teams as Washington and Nebraska. Fortunately for the Golden Gophers, both games were at Memorial Stadium.

Heading into the 1940 season, Minnesota had never lost to Washington. The Huskies were ready to change that. Though Minnesota was outplayed in nearly every offensive category, a combination of outstanding kick returns and tough defense allowed the Golden Gophers to squeak by 19-14.

The Golden Gophers were never supposed to get by the Huskies and defeating Nebraska the following weekend seemed even more unlikely. Nebraska knew about the outstanding two-touchdown performance Franck displayed against Washington. Minnesota would have little chance if the Cornhuskers could shut down the running game.

Nebraska's game plan worked wonders on Franck and Smith. What they had not counted on was the superb play of William Daley and William Johnson, who gained nearly 300 yards on the ground for the Golden Gophers. Minnesota's defense once again showed it was golden as it held Nebraska to only 25 yards on the ground. This took the Cornhuskers out of their game and vaulted Minnesota to a 13-7 victory.

Minnesota kept up its streak of close games when it defeated Ohio State 13-7. The Golden Gophers were soundly beaten on paper, and most likely would have been beaten on the scoreboard had it not been for the stellar play of Smith and his two touchdowns.

The next week, Franck finally broke open the Minnesota offense with his four touchdown performance in the Golden Gophers' 34-6 drubbing of Iowa. The celebration would not last long, however, as Minnesota next faced Northwestern — a team that had beaten the Golden Gophers for two straight seasons.

The way Minnesota was playing, Northwestern did not figure to be an overly difficult opponent. They were much improved, however, and the Golden Gopher — Wildcat game had a tradition of being battles to the end. From 1932 to 1949, no Minnesota — Northwestern game was ever decided by more than a single touchdown. The same held true in 1940 as the Golden Gophers edged out Northwestern 13-12. Were it not for two missed point-after attempts by the Wildcats, Minnesota's dream season may have been over.

If college football fans missed the Northwestern game, the game against Michigan proved to be a near carbon copy. Minnesota won, 7-6, once again as a result of a missed point-after attempt. Smith proved to be a major factor in the game as he gained 116 of Minnesota's 205 total yards and scored the lone Golden Gopher touchdown.

After winning two very close games against two quality Big Ten opponents, Minnesota headed into the final two games of the season excited about its chances of bringing a national championship back to Minnesota after a three-year absence. To do so, they would have to get by Purdue and Wisconsin. Neither team proved to be a match for the Golden Gophers as they beat Purdue 33-6, before defeating Wisconsin in the final game of the season, 22-13, to win their fourth national championship in seven years.

George "Sonny" Franck was an All-American in 1940.

1941 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

After returning to the national spotlight in 1940, expectations for the 1941 Golden Gophers were high once again. On top of an already difficult Big Ten schedule, Minnesota had to go to battle once again with national powers Nebraska and Washington. But talk of another title flowed freely throughout Memorial Stadium.

The real superstar, and the key to Minnesota's national title hopes, proved to be Bruce Smith. While Smith was only the third leading rusher on the team, his outstanding play and attitude on the field earned him widespread recognition. He not only earned All-Big Ten and All-America status, but also became Minnesota's first and only player to ever win the Heisman Trophy. While Smith's individual accomplishments were among the greatest in Minnesota history, the fight that the Golden Gophers put up during the 1941 season was every bit as exciting.

Minnesota opened the 1941 campaign against Washington in Seattle. The Huskies had established themselves as a dominant force, and games between the two teams traditionally proved to be very close.

This season's match-up was to be more of the same. The Golden Gophers managed only 213 yards on the ground, 189 of them between Smith and Bill Daley. In the end it was the Minnesota defense who prevailed, smothering its opponent time after time as the Maroon and Gold escaped from Seattle with a 14-6 victory.

Minnesota opened its Big Ten schedule with the conference doormat, Illinois. As expected, the Golden Gophers rolled over the Orange and Blue 34-6. It proved to be a good preparatory game before another non-conference tilt against Pittsburgh.

Minnesota had not played Pittsburgh since the Golden Gophers won their first national championship in 1934. The Panthers gave Minnesota everything they wanted and more in 1934, but 1941 proved to be a different story. Minnesota dominated the Panthers in every aspect of the game. Despite fumbling the ball away four times, the offense racked up 39 points, while the defense stood strong by intercepting two passes and not allowing the Panthers a taste of the end zone.

After the Pittsburgh game, the Maroon and Gold headed into the meat of its schedule against Michigan, Northwestern, Nebraska, and Iowa. It was clear that if the Golden Gophers wanted to repeat as national champions that this stretch of the schedule would determine just how good the team truly was.

Michigan and Northwestern appeared to be the two greatest threats to Minnesota's title hopes. Both teams had established themselves among the best in the conference and historically had given Minnesota fits. History was on Minnesota's side, however, as they had emerged with victories in almost every close game in the past 10 seasons.

Michigan was looking to rain on Minnesota's national championship parade after the Golden Gophers had defeated them on Bruce Smith's lastminute touchdown the previous season. Michigan was able to contain Smith and Daley reasonably well, but in the end the Wolverine offense could not beat Minnesota's defense and the Golden Gophers squeaked out a 7-0 victory.

Northwestern wanted revenge much the same as Michigan since Minnesota had come away with a one point victory the previous season. Northwestern had luck on its side as Smith was injured and unable to carry the ball for the Golden Gophers. It appeared as if the elements were in line for the Wildcats to dethrone the reigning national champions. It was not to be however. Without Smith, Bud Higgins stepped up his game to gain 96 yards for the Golden Gophers and lead them to another exciting one point win over Northwestern, 8-7.

Minnesotans were somewhat concerned with their chances to win without Smith on the field. Against Iowa Head Coach Bernie Bierman chose to sit Smith out and not risk further injuring his knee. After one quarter, the Golden Gophers had not gained a single yard on the ground. Smith realized that if Minnesota was to win another championship he had to contribute. After convincing coach Bierman to put him in the game, Smith put the Golden Gophers in position to score three touchdowns. While Smith did not gain a large number of yards, he had helped to keep the Minnesota championship hopes alive.

The Golden Gophers closed out their season playing the University of Wisconsin. For the fifth time in eight years, Minnesota beat the Badgers to end the season and wrap up a national championship, making Bernie Bierman the winningest coach in school history.

Bruce Smith won the Heisman Trophy and was a first team All-American in 1941.

Dick Wildung was named a first team All-American in 1941.

1960 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 1960-61 athletic season proved to be one of the most productive ever for the University of Minnesota Athletics Department. Swimmer Steve Jackman won the NCAA 100-yard freestyle while setting the American record, and the hockey team placed third at the NCAA Tournament. The crowning achievements, however, were the two national championships the school won. Baseball won its second national title in four years, while the Minnesota football team returned to national prominence by winning its sixth national title.

Murray Warmath entered his seventh season as the Minnesota head football coach on the heels of three consecutive losing seasons.

Expectations to start the season were not very high as the Golden Gophers were not ranked by a single news service. To add insult to pre-season injury, Minnesota lost to the alumni squad 19-7. The outlook for the 1960 season did not appear to be a bright one.

The Golden Gophers opened the season against Nebraska, a game which virtually no one gave Minnesota a chance to win. Minnesota surprised everyone, thanks to strong performances by All-America lineman Tom Brown and quarterback Sandy Stephens. Stephens completed 5-of-6 pass attempts and kept Nebraska pinned deep by averaging 40.1 yards per punt on seven boots.

Minnesota's 26-14 win over Nebraska did not quiet doubters in the least and was considered a fluke. The Golden Gophers headed into the Big Ten schedule with something to prove.

Minnesota opened the Big Ten season with an impressive 42-0 rout of Indiana. Minnesota's offense sputtered in the first three quarters, but exploded for four touchdowns in the final quarter — two within 60 seconds of each other.

The Golden Gophers next looked to a Northwestern team which had beaten them in each of the previous two years. It looked to be a good challenge for Warmath's undefeated team, especially since they had to contend with Northwestern's outstanding quarterback, Dick Thornton. Minnesota's offense stole the show the week before, and now it was the defense's turn to star against Northwestern. Tom Brown repeatedly leveled Thornton on rushing attacks and held him to minus-14 net yards rushing. When Brown was not stopping Thornton on the ground, he was forcing him into poor passing decisions as the U of M came away with a 7-0 victory over the Wildcats.

The Golden Gophers established their defense as among the toughest in the conference, but against Illinois the Golden Gophers flip-flopped positions and they took an outstanding offensive performance to wrap up the game. Stephens starred by scoring all three Minnesota touchdowns en route to a 21-10 win. Minnesota realized that they must play consistently on the offensive side of the ball in order to keep winning.

Warmath managed to get more consistency out of his offense the next three games, while the defense continued to stifle opponents. The Golden Gophers beat Michigan, 10-0, then went on to defeat Kansas State and Iowa, 48-7 and 27-10, respectively. Minnesota appeared to be rolling with only two games remaining in the regular season.

The Purdue Boilermakers were among the worst teams in the conference in 1960 and looked to pose little problem for the seemingly unstoppable Golden Gophers. Minnesota showed flashes of the alumni game, however, and was shocked 23-14 at Memorial Stadium. The loss was huge. It vaulted Iowa into first place in the major polls, and put Minnesota in a tie for first in the Big Ten. The Golden Gophers had a must-win game against Wisconsin to end the season.

The Badgers were also a fairly weak team, but there would be no repeat upset over the Golden Gophers in the final game of the season as Minnesota cruised to a 26-7 victory. Minnesota's win, coupled with an 8-1 record, earned them enough votes to take over first place from Iowa in both the final AP and UPI polls. The Golden Gophers had earned their sixth national championship and first-ever trip to the Rose Bowl in the process.

Tom Brown won the Outland Trophy and was a first team All-American in 1960.

LITTLE BROWN JUG

Minnesota vs. Michigan

The story of “The Little Brown Jug,” neither little nor brown, began at the turn of the century. The fabled “point-a-minute” Michigan football squads, coached by Fielding Yost, were destroying everyone in the nation, and had won 28 straight games heading into Minneapolis in 1903.

The pregame revelry pulsed through the campus. Minnesota had one of its best teams in school history and expected to give Yost’s squad a run for their money. Before the game, students paraded across the field with various painted livestock, while fans filtered into the stadium from a constant stream of arriving streetcars. The 20,000 fans, positioned in bleachers, as well as atop trees and telephone poles, remained civil until the Gophers scored a second-half touchdown that tied the score at 6-6. At this point, fans stormed the field in celebration, causing pandemonium so great that the game had to be called with two minutes remaining on the clock.

On the morning following the contest, Minnesota custodian Oscar Munson carried an earthenware water jug to the office of L. J. Cooke, head of the athletics department. Munson pronounced in a heavy Scandinavian accent, “Jost left his jug.” Still giddy from the tie, they decided to keep the prize, and painted on its side “Michigan Jug - Captured by Oscar, October 31, 1903,” and the score, “Minnesota 6, Michigan 6.” The Minnesota score appeared comically “as big as a house,” dwarfing the Michigan score beside it. Yost sent a letter asking Minnesota to return the jug. Cooke wrote back “if you want it, you’ll have to win it.”

The two teams didn’t play again until 1909. Michigan won the game that year, and Minnesota dutifully returned the jug. In 1910, Michigan left the conference, and Minnesota didn’t have a chance to win it back until 1919. That year the Gophers, led by their star Arnie Oss, stormed into Ann Arbor and pounded the Wolverines 34-7 on their own Ferry Field. When Minnesota asked for the symbolic trophy at the end of the game, their rivals couldn’t find it. But the Gopher players persisted, and Wolverine equipment man Henry Hatch came up with it after a short time, saying that he found it “overgrown behind a clump of shrubbery near the gym.” Later, Minnesota historians said, “...but most likely it was found in a trophy case inside the gymnasium, easily dusted off and proudly brought back to Minnesota.”

Cooke took out his paint brush again to paint that year’s result. In the end, his two artistic attempts had taken up the whole surface of the five gallon jug, so when Michigan took it back the next year, the two schools decided to give the entire jug a colorful gloss. Now, the results of 94 games — including two in one season (1926) are embossed on its sides: 69 won by Michigan, 22 by Minnesota, and three ties. Due to the Big Ten’s unbalanced schedule, Minnesota and Michigan did not face each other in either 1999 or 2000, breaking a consecutive streak of annual contests that dated back to the 1929 season.

After a 20-year absence, Minnesota returned the jug to its original home with a last-second victory over Michigan in 2005 in Ann Arbor. Following a 61-yard run by Gary Russell with just over a minute remaining, Jason Giannini hit a 30-yard field goal as time expired, giving the Gophers the 23-20 victory. In jubilation of their first win over the Wolverines since 1986, the Gopher players stormed the Michigan sideline to secure the prodigious prize.

Cooke once mused on the strange power within the stoneware crock, “I sometimes think that the jug has been filled with spirits, not alcoholic, but the disembodied spirits of the countless players who have fought for it on the gridiron...”

In many ways, the jug represents the history of college football. It overflows with historic battles for national and conference championships, and may indeed be filled with the spirits of gridiron men who went on to win Heisman Trophies and Hall of Fame honors. It is the most famous of all college rivalry trophies, and no other inanimate object comes close to the aura of tradition like the Little Brown Jug.

FLOYD OF ROSEDALE

Minnesota vs. Iowa

The states of Minnesota and Iowa battle it out every year in college football, when their teams face each other in one of the most emotional rivalries in the country. The winner of the game earns the right to keep the bronze statue of a pig called "Floyd of Rosedale."

The year was 1935, and emotions were running hot heading into the Minnesota-Iowa game. Bernie Bierman's Gophers were 5-0, and Ossie Solem's Hawkeyes were 4-0-1. Iowa had recently been reinstated to eligibility following a suspension for slush-fund violations, a suspension that had been ardently supported by a Minnesota representative. To make matters worse, Iowa fans still remembered the contest from the year before, when Minnesota players had roughed up Hawkeye star Ozzie Simmons so badly that he had to leave the game because of injuries.

The game in 1935 was at Iowa, and the host state had not forgotten either of the incidents. Iowa Governor Clyde Herring incited the fans and joined in the bitter feelings toward the state to the north and its football squad by saying, "If the officials stand for any rough tactics like Minnesota used last year, I'm sure the crowd won't."

Greatly alarmed, Minnesota's Governor Floyd Olson tried to cool the hot heads of fans on both sides of the border with his telegraphed answer to Herring. "Minnesota folks are excited over your statement about Iowa crowds lynching the Minnesota football team. I have assured them you are law-abiding gentlemen and are only trying to get your goat...I will bet you a Minnesota prize hog against an Iowa prize hog that Minnesota wins."

The diplomatic tactic eased the tension, and the game was a hard-fought, but cleanly played, 13-6 Minnesota victory. More importantly, no mob of angry fans got involved in any postgame, extracurricular activity. The Golden Gophers brought home "Floyd of Rosedale," an award-winning prize pig which had been donated by Allen Loomis, the owner of Rosedale Farms near Fort Dodge, Iowa, and named after the Minnesota governor.

A few days later, Governor Herring collected Floyd and personally walked him into Governor Olson's carpeted office. About the same time, news surfaced that an Iowa fan had sworn out a warrant charging Herring with gambling. Iowa good-naturedly offered asylum, but Herring declined. "I might have to go home and write out a pardon for myself," Herring joked.

Governor Olson later offered Floyd up as the grand prize in a state-wide essay-writing contest, which was won by 14-year-old Robert Jones. Jones later sold the hog to the U of M. A year later, the University sold Floyd to J.B. Gjerdrum, a breeder who lived near Mabel, Minn., on the Iowa-Minnesota border, for "about $50" according to Gjerdrum. Sadly, in a death most unbefitting a figure of such stature, Floyd passed on to that great pigpen in the sky. As Gjerdrum noted, "We had him about a year. There was hog cholera around...One day he just leaned up against a straw pile and died."

The spirit of good sportsmanship embodied by Floyd lives on in the form of a 15 1/2-inch high, 21-inch long bronze statue of the prize hog. The sculpture was commissioned by Governor Olson and created by Charles Brioschi, a St. Paul artist.

In 2010, the Gophers brought Floyd home to Minneapolis for the first time since 2006 and they did it in dramatic fashion. Minnesota was 2-9 entering the game, while Iowa came in ranked No. 24 in the nation. Up 3-0, interim head coach Jeff Horton followed up the field goal with a call for an onside kick. It was perfectly-executed and a TD on the ensuing possession resulted in a 10-0 lead before Iowa ever touched the ball. The Hawkeyes led late, but a fourth-quarter TD and a turnover-forcing hit by Troy Stoudemire sealed a 27-24 win for Minnesota. In 2011, an onside kick was integral to another Gopher victory. The Gophers trailed 21-16 after a Duane Bennett 1-yard TD plunge midway through the fourth quarter. Head coach Jerry Kill called for an onside kick, which was perfectly executed by Jordan Wettstein. Twelve plays and 59 yards later, quarterback MarQueis Gray sprinted three yards to the right pylon on fourth down to put UM up 22-21. After a stop by the Gopher defense, Minnesota ran out the clock to retain Floyd. Iowa captured Floyd in 2012 and retained him in 2013. Minnesota will look to reclaim Floyd on Nov. 8, 2014, at TCF Bank Stadium.

Every year, since 1935, these two border-state rivals have fought for the right to pen the bronze pig in their own trophy case. Every college football season, Minnesota and Iowa fight for "Floyd of Rosedale," a symbol of how interstate tension can be averted through athletic competition.

PAUL BUNYAN'S AXE

Minnesota vs. Wisconsin

At 123 games and counting, the series between Minnesota and Wisconsin ranks as the longest in Division 1-A football; and "Paul Bunyan's Axe" has the history of one of college football's fiercest rivalries emblazoned on its six-foot long handle. The first game in the series, a 63-0 Gopher victory in 1890, is printed on the handle near the axe's head. The results of every successive game line the handle in red ink. There have been so many games that the scores scroll up and down the width of both sides of the handle, and school officials have resorted to writing scores on the narrow edges of the six-foot shaft.

By 1930, "Paul Bunyan's Axe" wasn't even created, although the rivalry had already reached feverish levels. The 1906 game was canceled by President Theodore Roosevelt, who had decided to cool off heated college football rivalries, because of injuries and deaths on the field. In 1914, Minnesota faced the Badgers for the Gophers' first Homecoming game; likewise, Wisconsin hosted Minnesota for the Badgers' first in 1919. Between the years 1923 and 1925, the teams battled to three straight ties.

To symbolically capture the amazing atmosphere of the annual match-up, Dr. R.B. Fouch of Minneapolis fashioned a bacon slab out of black walnut to serve as the traveling trophy that he hoped would compare to the well-known "Little Brown Jug," which Minnesota and Michigan played for every year. The "Slab of Bacon," first played for in 1930, had a football carved on top inscribed with an "M" or "W", depending on how you held it. The idea was that the winning team would "bring home the bacon."

But in the early '40s, the Slab of Bacon became the "Missing Slab of Bacon." Peg Watrous, who was the president of Wisconsin women students at the time, relates that she and her counterpart from Minnesota were to have a symbolic exchange after the game, whereby the trophy would be awarded to the winning team. Minnesota won, but in characteristic fashion, a postgame melee broke out on the field, with students and spectators running crazy over the field. Watrous couldn't find her counterpart, and was left "holding the bacon," as it were. "I have no memory of what happened after that... The whole thing was a dud, as I feared it would be," Watrous remembered good-humoredly, "and someone in charge probably hid the bacon."

But the two teams had to play for something, so in 1948 the Wisconsin W Club instituted "Paul Bunyan's Axe" as a trophy more befitting the grand rivalry between the two schools. The annual battles have survived so long that in the '60s the teams started to print the games' final scores smaller and smaller, scrunching the numbers and letters in order to avoid reaching the end of the axe's shaft. But the series continued to roll, and the last game to be painted on the broad face of the handle was in 1980. The subsequent games appear on the narrow side of the handle.

Oregon-Oregon State	117

The Slab of Bacon was back in the news in the summer of 1994, when the long-lost trophy was found after a Camp Randall Stadium storage room was cleaned out. Wisconsin officials estimated that it had been missing since 1945; yet the scores of every Wisconsin-Minnesota game from 1930-70 were printed on the back of the slab. It is one of those Twilight Zone-esque mysteries that remains unexplained, and contributes to the legend of Minnesota's and Wisconsin's "Border Battle" rivalry.

GOVERNOR'S VICTORY BELL

Minnesota vs. Penn State

Like Floyd of Rosedale, Minnesota's fourth and most recent traditional game trophy was founded by a pair of state governors.

Then-acting Governor Mark Singel of Pennsylvania and former Governor Arne Carlson of Minnesota established the Governor's Victory Bell on Sept. 4, 1993, the date of the first Minnesota-Penn State game. The contest, which took place at Beaver Stadium on the Penn State campus, marked the first game between the two teams and also signified the inaugural Big Ten game for the Nittany Lions.

"As the Nittany Lions' initial conference opponent, Minnesota always will occupy a special place in Penn State football history, and we think it is appropriate to mark the occasion in this distinctive fashion," said Singel in 1993. "Governor Robert Casey was an early supporter of Penn State's move to the Big Ten Conference, and I know he looks forward to future conference games involving the Nittany Lions."

"Big Ten athletics has been a tremendously positive experience in the life of our state," said Carlson. "Minnesota's matchup against Penn State is a historic welcome to a school that will further enrich that experience for all of us. This trophy marks a very special occasion, and will allow us to remember it for years to come."

An artists' conception of the Governor's Victory Bell was presented by Singel and Carlson prior to the kickoff of that 1993 game, which Penn State won 38-20. The design of the trophy is a brass bell bearing the medallion of the Big Ten Conference, suspended from a wooden frame. At the top of the frame is a plaque which features the state seals of Minnesota and Pennsylvania, along with the following inscription:

Governor's Victory Bell

Presented annually to the winner of the Penn State-Minnesota football game

Established September 4, 1993

Governor Robert Casey, Pennsylvania

Governor Arne Carlson, Minnesota

At the bottom of the base, the Minnesota and Penn State athletics logos appear, along with individual brass plates for inscription of the scores of the games between the two teams.

After a two year hiatus between 1995-96, the battle for the Governor's Victory Bell returned in 1997 when Penn State earned a hard-fought 16-15 victory at Beaver Stadium. The 1998 game returned to the Metrodome for only the second time in the short history of the Bell, where the Nittany Lions earned a 27-17 win. Minnesota took the Victory Bell home for the first time in 1999 when the Golden Gophers scored a historic 24-23 upset over the second-ranked Nittany Lions at Beaver Stadium. In 2000, the Golden Gophers were again victorious, winning 25-16 at the Metrodome.

The Nittany Lions and Golden Gophers didn't meet in 2001 and 2002 and when the series renewed in 2003, the Gophers earned the right to keep the Bell with a 20-14 win in Happy Valley. Penn State claimed the bell for the first time in six years with their 44-14 win over Minnesota in 2005 and retained it with a 28-27 overtime win over the Gophers in the Metrodome during the 2006 season. After a two-year hiatus, the series resumed in 2009 with a 20-0 Penn State victory in Happy Valley. A 33-21 win for Penn State at TCF Bank Stadium in 2010 gave the Nittany Lions four straight wins in the series. Minnesota reclaimed the Bell and snapped a four-game losing streak with a 24-10 home in 2013.

The addition of the Governor's Victory Bell to the Golden Gophers' list of traditional trophy games means that Minnesota has four active "trophy" rivalries on its schedule, more than any other college football program in the country.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Pro Football Hall of Fame was officially opened on Sept. 7, 1963. Located in Canton, Ohio, the original two buildings that made up the Hall of Fame were 19,000-square-feet. Inducted that day were the first 17 members, including Minnesota's Bronko Nagurski. In May of 1971, the Hall of Fame became three buildings and 34,000 total square feet that featured more space for display areas, a movie theater, gift shop and research library. Visitor attendance reached 200,000 annually for the first time that year. Today, new displays and the Game Day Stadium showing the "100-yard Universe", an NFL Films production, adorn the Hall of Fame.

Currently, Minnesota has six former players who are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The most recent former player, Charlie Sanders, was enshrined August 4, 2007.

Nagurski is the only college player to be named a first team consensus All-American at two different positions before leading the Chicago Bears to three NFL Championships. He was inducted in 1963 as a charter member. Leo Nomellini was a three-time first team All-Big Ten player for Minnesota as well as a two-time All-American. He later went on to play for the San Francisco 49ers and played in every game of his professional career for 14 years. In 1970, he was named to the NFL's 25th anniversary team as one of the all-time great defensive tackles. He was inducted in 1969.

Bobby Bell was one of two Golden Gophers who brought the Outland Trophy to the U of M during his career. Bell won the award in 1962 before guiding the Kansas City Chiefs to two Super Bowls. Bell was inducted in 1983.

Bud Grant was an All-Big Ten end in 1948 and 1949 before he eventually became the head coach of the Minnesota Vikings. Grant coached the Vikings to 11 divisional titles and four Super Bowl appearances. He was enshrined in 1994.

Eller was a consensus All-American in 1963 and a three-time All-Big Ten selection during his U of M career. He went on to play 16 seasons in the NFL, 15 with the Minnesota Vikings. He was a five-time All-Pro and started at defensive end in four Super Bowls for the Vikings.

Sanders lettered for Minnesota in 1966 and 1967 as a tight end, earning All-Big Ten honors as a senior. He helped lead the Gophers to an 8-2 record and a share of the Big Ten title in 1967. Sanders moved to tight end as a senior where he caught 21 passes for 276 yards and two touchdowns. He was drafted by the Lions in the third round (74th overall pick) of the 1968 NFL Draft.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

A total of 19 former Golden Gopher players are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. They range from Edward L. Rogers, who scored the game-winning touchdown in the famous Little Brown Jug game against Michigan in 1903, to Bobby Bell, who brought the Outland Trophy to the University of Minnesota in 1962. Minnesota's most recent inductee -- Sandy Stephens -- was added to the Hall of Fame in 2011.

In addition, three former Minnesota coaches, Bernie Bierman, Fritz Crisler and Henry Williams, have been inducted into the Hall as well.

The Hall of Fame moved to Atlanta in August, 2014. It had previously been located in South Bend, Ind. and Kings Island, Ohio.

The first members of the College Football Hall of Fame were selected in 1951. Today, there are more than 1,000 players and coaches in the Hall.

The Hall of Fame is a part of the National Football Foundation, which was conceived in 1947 by the late Grantland Rice. In addition to sponsoring the Hall of Fame, the Foundation has awarded more than $3 million in graduate school scholarships to college football players.

GOPHERS ON THE RADIO

GOPHER SPORTS PROPERTIES

Gopher Sports Properties is a property of Learfield Sports and the dedicated multimedia rights holder representing University of Minnesota Athletics. In complete collaboration with the University, this local team is committed to extending the Golden Gophers' brand affinity to businesses and corporations of all sizes looking to align with the university's loyal and passionate fan base. Gopher Sports Properties manages all aspects of the multimedia rights relationship, providing corporate partners both traditional and new media opportunities through venue signage; digital engagement; event sponsorships and promotion; game day hospitality and luxury seating as well as radio game broadcasts and auxiliary programming across the 40+ station statewide Gopher Radio Network.

General Manager Greg Gerlach, entering his 11th season with Learfield, spearheads operations and works closely with the entire athletics administration on a daily basis. In its 40 years, Learfield has placed a great emphasis on developing trusted, long-term relationships with some of the most revered institutions and associations in the world of college athletics currently managing multimedia rights for nearly 100 collegiate properties with prominence in all of the major athletic conferences. The company also partners with NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics) and USA Today to present the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup, which annually recognizes the top overall collegiate programs in the country.

Gopher Radio Network broadcast team

GOPHERS RADIO PARTNERSHIPS

The University of Minnesota Department of Athletics, in conjunction with multimedia rights holder Gopher Sports Properties, announced a three year extension with Clear Channel's KFAN Sports Radio 100.3 FM for Gopher football beginning with the 2014 season. Meanwhile, Gopher men's and women's basketball and men's hockey will continue to air on Hubbard Broadcasting's 1500 AM ESPN Radio.

In addition to play-by-play coverage of all Gopher football games, related football programming, including the weekly coach's show with Jerry Kill, as well as a one-hour weekly show dedicated to Gopher Athletics, is broadcast on KFAN as well as nationally on iHeart Radio as well as XM/Satellite Radio. Gopher Football radio programming can also heard as well on the Gopher Radio Network, consisting of more than 40 stations that provide border to border coverage of Gopher Football and auxiliary programming. For a radio affiliate in your area please visit gophersports.com and then the multimedia section.

The radio broadcast team for Golden Gopher football consists of play-by-play man Mike Grimm, analyst Darrell Thompson and sideline reporter Justin Gaard.

Grimm will be calling Minnesota Football games for his fourth season in 2014. He has also served as the voice of Golden Gopher basketball since 2006. He had handled the halftime, pregame and postgame shows for Gopher football since 2006 as well. Thompson is the Gophers' all-time leading rusher. The NFL veteran has been serving as a color analyst for Minnesota football broadcasts since 1998. Gaard is an Edina, Minn. native, who attended Minnesota. He is the producer of the popular Bumper to Bumper with Dan Barreiro show on KFAN.

Gopher Athletics' agreement with Hubbard Broadcasting, Inc. allows for 1500 ESPN Radio to remain the Twin Cities flagship for Minnesota's winter sports with live play-by-play of both men's basketball and men's hockey, plus 15 women's basketball games. The station will also air Gopher-driven programming, including Gopher Hoops This Week and This Week in Gopher Sports, as well as weekly coaches' shows for Richard Pitino, Marlene Stollings, and Don Lucia. In addition, The Gopher Radio Network provides additional reach to greater Minnesota.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working media credentials for Minnesota home games at TCF Bank Stadium must be made online at gophersports.com/media. Please contact the Athletic Communications Office for more information at 612-625-4090. Credentials may be picked up at the Athletic Communications Office in the Bierman Field Athletic Building on Friday morning prior to the game, or on Saturday at the media will call area at TCF Bank Stadium. Credentials will be mailed at least one week prior to the game to the visiting SID for distribution to visiting media. Working media must enter the media entrance at TCF Bank Stadium.

CREDENTIALS POLICY

Media credentials are issued on a priority basis with television/radio stations originating a live broadcast, daily newspapers, national publications and television/radio stations who are covering for a nightly news show receiving top priority. All other requests will be evaluated on a game-by-game basis prior to receiving credentials. Freelance reporters and photographers must be on assignment for a recognizable news outlet and all credential requests must come through originating agency. Spouses, children and friends are not allowed in the TCF Bank Stadium press box. The University of Minnesota reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual who is not affiliated with an official news gathering organization.

GOPHERSPORTS.COM

All Golden Gopher football information, including rosters, notes and weekly releases are posted on GopherSports.com, the official website of Golden Gopher Athletics.

E-MAIL SERVICES

Press releases, game notes and advisories are e-mailed to members of the media who cover the Gophers on a regular basis. Media wishing to be added to the distribution list should contact Paul Rovnak (psrovnak@umn.edu).

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTS

Professional scouts should contact Paul Rovnak (psrovnak@umn.edu) in the Communications Office to obtain credentials.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited amount of media parking is available. Parking requests must be made through the Communications Office.

RADIO/TELEVISION

Minnesota's live television appearances are designated in accordance with Big Ten contractual agreements and guidelines. Radio booths are assigned for the Golden Gopher Radio Network and the opponent's flagship station/network. Booth assignments for additional opponent radio stations originating live broadcasts will be made on a space-available basis, with preference determined by the opponents' communication office.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers must present their media credentials at the media entrance prior to the game in order to receive a photographer's vest. Only photographers wearing those designated photo vests will be permitted on the sidelines. In accordance with NCAA and Big Ten rules, photographers are not permitted to shoot within the 25-yard lines (bench area) and must stay behind the 12-foot restraining line that surrounds the field at all times. Requests for photo assistance should be directed to Eric Miller, while all requests for assistance with video should be directed to Matt Schilling, director of video services.

INTERNET/TELEPHONE LINES

Wireless internet will be available in the press box at TCF Bank Stadium. Internet access will also be available in the media work rooms near both the home and visiting locker rooms. A limited number of telephone lines will be available in the TCF Bank Stadium press box on a first-come, first-served basis. Media wishing to install their own telephone lines may contact University of Minnesota Networking and Telecommunications Services at 612-626-1336.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Pregame notes, flip cards, stats and programs are available to the media in the press box prior to the game. Quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play and post-game coach/student-athlete quotes will also be provided. A $5 pregame meal will be served in the press box and complimentary snacks will be available at halftime. Beverages are available prior to, during and after the game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Minnesota complies with an equal access policy. Following his postgame radio show, Coach Jerry Kill and requested Minnesota players will be available to the media in the interview room. The visiting coach and student-athletes will be available in the visiting team interview room, which is located near the visiting team locker room.

WEEKLY AVAILABILITY

Coach Kill will be available to the media at 12 p.m. on Tuesday of weeks that Minnesota plays. Selected student-athletes will also be available following Coach Kill's media conference, class schedule permitting. Media representatives covering the Gophers on a regular basis are invited. For those unable to attend, a live video stream is available at GopherSports.com.

Coach Kill is also available to the media each Tuesday on the Big Ten teleconference call. Media are encouraged to contact the Big Ten's Communications Office for credentials to access the teleconference.

In addition to Tuesday, player interviews may be conducted following selected practices. All phone interviews for out-of-town media will be conducted Monday through Wednesday through the Athletic Communications Office. Home and mobile phone numbers for players and coaches will not be released and they have been instructed not to conduct interviews if contacted without prior approval of Athletic Communications.

All interviews must not conflict with classes, meetings, training room, treatments or other team obligations. The locker room and training room are closed to the media at all times. Requests for player and/or coach interviews, either in person or via the phone, will be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office. Please allow 24 hours in order to facilitate arrangements.

PRACTICE INFORMATION

The Golden Gopher football team practices at the Gibson-Nagurski Football Complex and Rod Wallace Field, located at 15th Ave. SE and 8th St. Please contact the Athletic Communications Office for practice times, availabilities and regulations.

One-on-one television interviews with Coach Kill will be conducted by request only through the Athletic Communications Office.

All post-practice interviews with players or coaches will be conducted at the Gibson-Nagurski Football Complex following the completion of practice. All limitations on or alterations of these procedures for practice will be determined by Coach Kill and communicated through the Athletic Communications Office.

PHOTOGRAPH REQUESTS

All requests for digital photographs of players and coaches, logos or other multimedia items must be made to Creative Director Jeff Keiser. He can be reached at keiser@umn.edu or at 612-626-1097.
